Korean Film Council

The Korean Film Council (KOFIC), a government-supported, selfadministered body, strives to promote and support Korean Films both in Korea and abroad. KOFIC's primary objective is to promote and support the production of Korean films through funding, research, education and training. It also strives to actively participate in international markets on the behalf of Korean films and to promote inter-cultural understanding through film-based cultural exchanges.

KOFIC Priorities

- 1. Establishment of plans to promote the Korean film industry.
- 2. Management of the Korean Film Development Fund.
- 3. Provision of support for the production, distribution and screening of films in order to ensure quality and greater diversification.
- 4. Management of film production facilities, including the KOFIC Namyangju Studios.
- 5. Support in the form of overseas marketing and promotion of international exchanges.
- 6. Research and development.
- 7. Education and training of film-related personnel.

2012, 125min, HD, Color, 2.35:1, Dolby SRD, Drama/Fantasy/Romance Cast PARK Bo-young, SONG Joong-ki Directed by JO Sung-hee

Summoned by a phone call, an elderly woman visits a cottage. She remembers a boy she knew half a century before. Moving to a peaceful village, when she was a girl, she found a "wolf boy," hiding in the darkness. The girl, now a woman, has never been able to purge the images of his wild eyes and animal-like behavior from her mind. She recalls teaching the boy how to wait before a meal, how to wear clothes, how to speak and write so that he could one day live like a normal man. She opened her heart to the innocent boy and he fell in love with the girl, the only person to ever show him affection.
